

The Student Life Multicultural Center's Social Justice Engagement invites you to participate in our

DICE

DIVERSITY, INTERCULTURAL AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Certificate Program – Mount Scholars

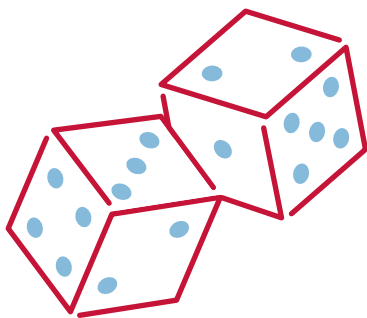

This program is for students interested in exploring diversity, intercultural engagement and socially just leadership. DICE offers flexible, fun and experiential training, as well as a wide range of opportunities to explore cultural difference. The DICE certification is a great way to demonstrate vested interest in diversity and intercultural engagement to future schools and employers.

What's Required?

- Earn 5 credits
- Write a reflection paper
- Complete program in one academic year
- Complete program-specific requirements

Interested in learning more, or getting started on your certificate program?

Visit go.osu.edu/DICE.

1 - Credit Options

- Attend a Student Life Multicultural Center or DICE-approved cultural program
- Attend a Social Justice Engagement workshop
- Attend an Advocates for Inclusion and Diversity through Education (AIDE) meeting
- Complete community kits reflection journal on the Multicultural Center website (can only use this option once)
- Attend a Sustained Dialogue Meeting

2 - Credit Options

- Attend an Open Doors training
- Attend a LGBTQ Safe Zone training
- Host a DICE-approved event or service project

