

Women of Color Networking: Pulling Weeds and Planting Seeds

Sunday, April 18 | 11 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Go.osu.edu/woc_networking

Keynote | 11 a.m.

Rachel Greene, Abundantly Blooming

Rachel (She/They) is committed to the healing journeys of the Black community, communities of color, LGBTQ+ folk, disabled folks, low-income communities, and many more under-served communities. She grounds her work in the value of breaking intergenerational cycles of trauma by addressing systemic, familial, and societal barriers through radical vulnerability.

Professional Panel Discussion | 12 p.m.

Hear their lived experiences and expertise!

Featuring:

- Annette Reyes, Leadership & Resiliency Coach
- Melissa Crum, Mosaic Education Network
- Suparna Bhaskaran, WGSS at OSU
- Tasha Lomo, Zora's House
- Tomara Dorsey, Goodwill Easter Seals

Networking | 1 p.m.

Share, Chat, Connect, Build

Email eagle.41@osu.edu for more information.